Accuracy opens its 14th international office in Dubai

Neuilly-sur-Seine, 4th December 2017

Accuracy, the sole totally independent actor with a truly global reach in the advisory field providing advice to company management and their shareholders, announces opening an office in Dubai. Led by Zane Hedge, 47 years old, a specialist in construction and infrastructure projects, this office already has five consultants and forecasts a rapid expansion.

This new location is the 14th for the firm, created in 2004, and adds to its powerful presence. The new office will work closely with Accuracy's London, Paris, Singapore and New Delhi offices in order to propose integrated approaches to different players in the sector.

Accuracy in Dubai offers litigation and arbitration services to international companies (expertise in construction – delay and quantum – as well as financial valuation). Strengthened with international teams, the office is also able to provide Accuracy's full service offering in transactions, decision-making and business turnarounds.

Zane Hedge said, 'At Accuracy for over a year and in Dubai for ten years now, I have been bringing my expertise and knowledge of local players to an international, fully integrated company with no silos. The possibilities are endless!'

Frédéric Duponchel mentions, 'A presence in Dubai complements our current presence perfectly, by enabling us to participate in large regional projects and the inevitable disputes that require our skills. We already work locally with numerous law firms, and we are able to provide complementary services to clients with them.'

Accuracy intends to increase the headcount of the Dubai office rapidly to a dozen members of staff.
